

Coming up at SKEA
Society for Kona's Education & Art

Pottery Workshops

with John Beck

HAND-BUILDING BASICS

Each workshop will begin with a brief introduction to the material and the use of hand tools.

Participants will gain a basic understanding of fundamental hand-building skills through live demonstration before diving into hands-on projects utilizing pinch, coil, and slab construction.

FOR ADULTS

Saturday & Sunday
May 22nd & 23rd
12-4pm

Glaze Day

Saturday June 5th
12-3pm

Final Session & Pickup
June 12th, 2-3pm

FOR TEENS

Thursday & Friday
June 3rd & 4th
1-4pm

Glaze Day

Friday June 18th
1-4pm

Final Session & Pickup
June 25, 2-3pm
Ages 10+ are welcome

John Beck is a member of the Kona Potters' Guild who has been working with clay for over a decade. He is an artist, scientist, and entrepreneur by training. He earned a dual Bachelor of Arts & Bachelor of Science degree from the Evergreen State College.

Tuition is $105, or $95 for SKEA members, and includes all supplies and firings. To register, please call the SKEA office at (808)328-9392 or email skea@hawaiiir.com. Youth scholarships are available, please ask for an application.

SKEA is located between the 105 and 106 mile markers in Honaunau. We are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to providing cultural events and classes to the South Kona community and public schools. Please visit our website at www.skea.org.

These workshops are sponsored by the County of Hawaii, and by the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, through appropriations from the Legislature of the State of Hawaii, and by the National Endowment for the Arts.